

TYLER DUELM MEMORIAL

TYLER'S TIME PROGRAMS

When the new library opened its doors, the Tyler Duelm Activity Room was unveiled. The room showcases not only Tyler's strength but also the animals, books, and toys he loved, thanks to the many heartfelt donations made in his memory. Hundreds of children have enjoyed storytimes, after-school programs, and summer reading programs in this cozy, welcoming space.

The Tyler Duelm Fund was established to provide the La Grange Public Library with the means to offer additional youth services programs to the public, over and above those typically funded by the library's operating budget. Tyler's Time programs are designed for preschoolers, lower elementary and upper elementary school students. Tyler's Time programs allow us to present memorable, hands-on programs that capture the senses. The fund allows the library to bring in instructors and performers that enrich learning and cultural experiences that we otherwise would not be able to afford.

To date, we have provided 22 Tyler's Time programs to nearly 1000 children and adults. Some of the fantastic Tyler's Time programs include:

- The Field Museum's interactive Mummies program
- Gina Marie's Yoga and Singsong for Children
- Watercolors with artist Beth Swanson
- Robin's Dog Stars
- Tumblebus Fitness
- Halloween Magic with Michael Kett
- Juggling with the Truly Remarkable Loon
- Author visit with Eric Rohmann
- Music performance by Linda Robertson

OPPORTUNITIES FOR GIVING

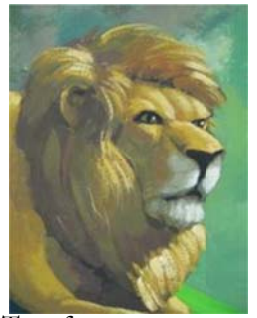

In order to continue offering these fabulous programs, we need your help. For $25 you can purchase a leaf for yourself, a friend or family member, or in memory of a loved one. Consider a leaf as a gift for birthdays, graduations, and other special occasions. Each leaf owner will receive a personalized leaf on the Youth Services Department wall.

For those individuals and businesses looking to make a larger impact through their donation, there are several other levels of giving. Each animal will be inscribed with two names.

- Penguin Level $100-$249
- Monkey Level $250-$499
- Lion Level $500 and above
